

Charles Hayes
Contracting Officer, U.S. Environmental Protection Agency Region IV

Charles Hayes is a Contracting Officer for the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) where he has served in a senior capacity for nine years. He is currently serving as the Regional Small Business Program Manager within the Office of Budget and Acquisition Management. Mr. Hayes previously held positions of Senior Contracting Officer and Team Leader with the Department of Army, Department of Navy, Defense Intelligence Agency and the National Institutes of Health. He successfully completed the Army Material Command's Management Intern Program, and is a Level III Contracting Officer. Mr. Hayes has a Finance degree from the State University of West Georgia.

Supporting Documentation

Ann #: MP-2008-0052