

DAVID ALLEN ROSE

David A. Rose, Esq., is the senior member of a law firm practicing throughout the United States and internationally based in Duluth (Atlanta) Georgia. In addition to Federal Contracts and Procurement law, he assists companies and Corporations with business formation issues (LLCs, Domestic Corporations, Joint Ventures, Teaming Arrangements, 8a and Small Disadvantaged Applications to SBA, etc.) and with the establishment of subsidiary entities in foreign locations from the Caribbean to the Mid and Far East.

Formerly the Deputy General Counsel (Deputy Staff Judge Advocate) for the Air Force Center for Engineering and Environmental Excellence, Dave oversaw the legal program for execution of over $4 Billion in Federal contracts each year. Dave has served at senior positions in Korea, Japan, Germany, Great Britain and the Pentagon and now brings that breadth of knowledge and experience to his private practice. His background is complemented by degrees in chemistry, mathematics, a jurisdoctorate, and post doctoral degrees in environmental law and procurement law from George Washington University.

He is active in the State Bar of Georgia, US Court of Federal Claims, US Tax Court, Armed Services Board of Contract Appeals, Fulton County Bar Association, the Society of American Military Engineers, the American Society of Civil Engineers, and the Judge Advocates Association.

He currently holds the active rank of Lt Col in the United States Air Force Reserves and the position of Deputy Staff Judge Advocate (Cat A) to the Headquarters, United States Air Force Reserves where he is one of the primary legal advisors to the Commanding Officer of the Air Force Reserves, Lt General Stenner.